

Oak Fumed (Quercus petraea)

Region: Europe

Figure Type: Plain

Cut(s): Quarter

Very dark brown to black in color. Ammonia fuming is a wood finishing process that darkens wood while also bringing out the grain pattern. Common applications: Architectural panels and millwork, cabinetry, doors, flooring and furniture, as well as both yacht and aircraft interiors.

M. Bohlke Corp.

8375 N. Gilmore Road | Fairfield, OH | P: (513) 874-4400 | mbvener.com | sales@mbvener.com