

Our selection of indigenous oak slabs

The majority of our lumber inventory consists of imported woods, but did you know we also carry some indigenous species, such as Pacific Oak, Red Oak, and Eastern White Oak? All three are tough, durable woods, ultimately bringing choice down to what is visually desired.

Our featured Pacific Oak live edge to the right displays handsome burl-like eyes atop chocolate and reddish browns; in contrast, our available Red Oak slabs have warmer red, sometimes pink, tones to bring to life into a variety of spaces. Lastly, our Eastern White Oak slabs provide classic white oak grain accompanied with nice, long lengths. These slabs are ideal for book matched tables, allowing you to have complete control over widths. In the coming months, our lumber team will grade new additions of this oak, adding to the current inventory that is already over 100 individual pieces.
