

Afrormosia and Iroko, excellent alternative Teak choices

Genuine Teak is undoubtedly a superior wood in the boatbuilding world because of its incredible durability, water and rot resistance, and its beautiful golden honey color. Due to its highly sought after characteristics, Teak tends to be on the upper end of demand and material cost. In addition to a wide collection of genuine Teak, we offer Afrormosia and Iroko. These two lesser known, cost effective alternatives are widely utilized in boat building and exterior applications around the globe. Afrormosia and Iroko closely resemble genuine Teak with similar exterior qualities:
